Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 98 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. A simple yet profound story of our Mighty God reaching into the life of an Indonesian village girl who chose to follow His paths of righteousness. With Gods gifting, she has lived through much hardship with thanksgiving. - Ron and Ellen Ritchey Titing's faith continues to impact others as she partners with International Disaster Emergency Service, offering help and hope to earthquake victims in Indonesia. Demonstrating Gods love in practical ways often softens hearts for responding to the gospel, as expressed by the messages of thanks shared in Titing's story. - Nancy Jett, IDES Vina escaped from a family scheme to marry her to a grandfather when she was 11. Through a series of God events she came to live with our daughter and her family. They helped her learn to read and she is now in Jr. High School. While she was preparing for her elementary school equivalency test, we tried to encourage Vina with a promise to take her to Java to meet Titing when she passed. We knew Titing's life story would encourage and challenge her. It did. We believe it will do the same for you. - Dennis and Lynn Free, Ambon, Indonesia A story about a girl from one of the largest Unreached People Groups in the world. She faced many challenges in life prior to becoming a believer and later as a believer. The story is presented in a candid, funny and sometimes depressing way, yet Titing comes through victorious because of her faith in Christ. It shows the model life of missionaries who are sensitive, caring and hands-on in coming alongside people who are suffering, who are able to see Gods way in sharing Christ in these crucial moments...
