Intensities of awe and noblest mirth Bear us on to the distant fire creations Of nebulosities of extended girth. Incarnate in the very condensations We slowly live up to the present worth, Through the times, process and differentiations That builds the universe up to its glorious stations. Thus bound along the mighty evolutions From heterogeneous elements most raw, We see the growth of nature s institutions, Matter, biologies, intelligence and awe. The reach and sweep of everlasting law Inspire and light imagination s eyes To see worlds born, and then sink in the maw Of what might seem annihilation. They rise Through geologic dynasties, though they draw Some of the past entail; but promise ever cries A still diviner course along the azure skies. Still onward we are bound by flight benign Though earthquake shocks of conflict round...
