Alphonse Courier , born in 1867 , possessed all that might make a modestly ambitious man content . a respectable position in his Auvergne village . thanks to the prosperous ironmonger's shop he had started . a dutiful, and indeed coolly beautiful wife Agnes, who bore him two sons and ran a model household . and a secret mistress, Adele, who was plain , but passionate . He was so much the apple of his mother's eye that when the old lady died, few people were more relieved than her dutiful daughter-in-law - a nd one of Agnes' first duties turned out to be the arrangement of her maid's marriage to a local carter . when she judged the girl was making eyes at her husband .But fate had a way of playing a joker just when you think you hold all the best cards . Assuredly the villagers could continue to indulge in their favourite blood-sport . gossip . but some...
