William P. Frye, of Maine in the Senate of the United States, Tuesday, May 29, 1888 When they ask for bread will you give them a stone; for tab, a serpent? If we have another war it will be on the ocean. Who will man our ships? Eighty-five per cent, of the sailors on ships in the foreign trade are foreigners, owing the Republic no allegiance, willing to render her no service. These fisherman are 80 per cent. American citizens, 65 per cent. American birth; inured to hardship, constantly expected to the perils of the sea, brave, skillful, patriotic, they would respond to a man to the bugle-call of the country. Why should not the Republic Blond by them when they are in peril, when they are suffering wrong at the hands of a foreign power? Why, Mr. President, the greatness of a nation consists largely in its jealous care for its citizens, humble though they may be. King Theodore in 1863 or 1864 took Captain Cameron, an Englishman,...
