If I go to Meeting at all I like best to sit in the quiet old house in Germantown, where the windows are all open and I can see the trees, and hear the stir of the leaves. It s such a crush at the Yearly Meeting at Arch Street, and then there s the row of sleek-looking young men who line the curbstone and stare at us as we come out. No, I don t feel at home there. That evening Ruth and her father sat late by the drawing-room fire, as they were quite apt to do at night. It was always a time of confidences. Thee has another letter from young Sterling, said Eli Bolton. Yes. Philip has gone to the far west. How far? He doesn t say, but it s on the frontier,...
