

The Philosophy Of Life: (Facets Of Recent Indian Philosophy), Vol. IV

By S.P. Dubey (Ed.)

Indian Council of Philosophical Research, New Delhi, 1998. Hard back. Book Condition: New. First. 23 cms. The series entitled Facets of Recent Indian Philosophy is a collection of addresses delivered by eminent philosophers as General Presidents in the annual sessions of the Indian Philosophical Congress. Initially conceived to be published in three volumes, and the idea having been accomplished, the proposition transgressed itself and this fourth volume symbolises the transcending finale of the venture. Now all the available Presidential addresses till date have been included in the series. They have been arranged thematically as below: Volume 1: The Metaphysics of the Spirit; Volume 2: Indian Philosophy and History; Volume 3: Problems of Indian Philosophy; Volume 4: The Philosophy of Life. The first three volumes contain seventeen addresses each. The last one has twenty-one entries, including a couple of addresses of Sectional Presidents, one Endowment Lecture and one paper submitted to a section. The addresses included in these deal with some of the major and perennial problems of philosophy in general and of Indian philosophy in particular. Thus, problems of ego, fear, sorrow, violence, peace, freedom, time and the like, have received focal attention. Some of the addresses discuss temporal and...

READ ONLINE
[9.59 MB]

Reviews

The ebook is fantastic and great. It really is basic but unexpected situations within the fifty percent in the book. Its been written in an exceptionally basic way in fact it is only after i finished reading through this ebook by which actually modified me, modify the way in my opinion.

-- Ms. Donna Parker MD

This type of publication is every thing and taught me to searching ahead and more. It can be rally fascinating throug reading through period of time. You can expect to like how the blogger write this pdf.

-- Dr. Jillian Champlin IV