A Home Away from Home?: International Students in Australian and South African Higher Education

By John P. Nieuwenhuysen, Ilana Snyder

Monash University Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A Home Away from Home?: International Students in Australian and South African Higher Education, John P. Nieuwenhuysen, Ilana Snyder, Due to enhanced mobility, students more than ever before have the option to study abroad. Higher proportions of students are drawn from countries outside the home bases of universities; and tertiary institutions have become increasingly dependent for their financial viability on the revenues derived from these students. As a result, an activity that has historically been evaluated in terms of its contribution to the public good is now more likely to be assessed through the application of business and marketing principles. The character of the higher education experiences in many countries, including South Africa and Australia, have also been dramatically changed by the increasing diversity and cosmopolitanism associated with the flow of students from a range of countries. In this book, a timely and distinctive collection of papers enhances understanding of the complex issues associated with international education in globalizing times. The book's contributions come from a conference at Monash University's Johannesburg campus in November 2010. The focus of the conference was international students in South Africa and Australia. A distinctive feature...
