If you can call any thing in this list a luxury, you must recollect that we have only had it lately; for two months we had nothing, and were annoyed by myriads of fleas, bugs, lice, anls, mosquitoes, and centipedes, without a possibility of getting rid of them, except by death or a miracle. I have on my back now the only shirt (and a woolen one too) I have had for nearly five months, and half a pair of cotton drawers are on my legs. I omitted to mention, that on the north wall is my calendar. Every morning I scratch with the head of a rusty nail, the day of the month We have also a third wooden stool lent to us by Aticao. Employed we aie, but the days are awfully tedious, and I am sadly at a loss for something to pass away the time, and feel the want of books. We have space for no more extracts; these however are enough, and they show fairly and fully the manner in which the prisoners passed their days and nights, and show us also somewhat of their sufferings. But the authors of their sufferings, and their cruel murderers--where are they! Have they been brought to justice 7 Art. VII Journal of Occurrnces: dreadful loss of life by lke burning of a theatre in Canton; commerce of Fuchau fu; return of the majoc ecioral D...
