Notes: This table represents funding under Division A of the act, which consists primarily of discretionary spending, with some exceptions. Appropriations totaling 109 million for the Recovery Accountability and Transparency Board and the Government Accountability Office were excluded because these funds are used primarily to provide oversight. We also excluded the Railroad Retirement Board because these funds are directly paid to beneficiaries. The numbers in this table may differ from those reported by agencies on the Recovery. gov Web site. These differences may be attributed to presentation, coverage, and reporting date. Some agencies chose to include certain appropriation, obligation, and outlay information, such as funding for inspector general offices and salaries and expenses, while others did not. a Some agencies chose to report data for July 3, which was the Friday after the first quarter reporting period, instead of June 30 data. b Transfer from the Department of Commerce. c...
