Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of Fairfield County, South Carolina In this work, of any mention being made of persons fully entitled to a record in history. The author will take pleasure in yet giving them a place in an appendix to the little work. But for urgent solicitations from friends I should not have undertaken this book at my advanced stage of life, and hope the readers of it will pardon any errors or omissions. The friends to the work have been very kind in furnishing material for it. I will here state that during my illness I was greatly indebted to a young friend, a descendant of two prominent families spoken of in this work, for the interest manifested in copying my reminiscences, and letters from correspondents, relative to my book. Then I remember all The friends, so linked together, I ve seen around me fall Like leaves in wintry weather; I feel like one Who treads alone Some banquet hall deserted, When lights are fled, Whose garlands dead, And all but me departed; I shall begin by giving a few extracts from Simmer s Geography of South Carolina. Fairfield was first settled by emigrants from Virginia and North Carolina. It derived its name most probably from the grateful appearance which it made in the eyes of wanderers, weary with long looking for a resting place. It is bounded on the north by Chester District, on the south by Richland, on the west and northwest by Broad River, which divides it from Union, Newberry and Lexington; son on the northeast by the Wateree end Satawba Rivers, which separate it from a part of Lancaster and Kershaw, fairfield...
