Shades of a Colonial Coloured An Autobiography chronicles the young authors memory milestones, such as asking her mother to pick her up, at age one-and-a-half; Queen Elizabeths Coronation celebration, at three years old; and the colonys conversion from British pounds, shillings and pence to the new Eastern Caribbean Currency of dollars and cents, at age ten, among others. The author documents taboo subject questions such as Where do babies come from She touches on the very subtle racism that lurks amongst a few people; the days of migration to England; her first encounter with Rock and Roll and the juke box; and her first peek into American racism. The book gives insight into the authors makeup and foundation, literally. It shows her enthusiasm for learning, and her curiosity about humanity. It also reveals how much corporate punishment was used in home and school. This autobiography is testament to a determination to persevere and rise above all odds, in spite of obstacles. Youths honest navet, innocence, and beauty shine through this thoughtfully written, informative, and valuable work. This item ships from multiple locations.
